- A record of success in leadership and managing people, and highly developed interpersonal skills.
- Demonstrated experience in administration, financial and program management, along with writing funding proposals and reports.
- An understanding of supporting staff working cross culturally and with a high level of trauma content.
- Demonstrated capacity to implement strategic organisational change as required.
- Ability to work with minimal supervision and balance competing demands in a complex environment.
- Demonstrated high level written communication skills.
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills across diverse groups, including demonstrated ability to work in partnership with all NPYWC staff and pursuing aims set by NPYWC Directors.
- Comprehensive computer skills.

Desirable:

- Experience living and working in remote Australia is desirable.

Employment Conditions:

- Work in a manner consistent with NPYWC Values, Code of Conduct, Rules and advocacy positions.
- Follow and work within NPYWC policies and procedures.
- Be responsible and accountable for your own and others health, safety and wellbeing.
- If applicable, the employee will provide the highest standards of service to clients at all levels by modelling service excellence that meets the needs of clients and enhances the profile of NPYWC.
- Some positions will require working in remote communities for extended periods and out of hours' work requiring overnight absences.

- Remote positions include accommodation. Usually this is stand-alone accommodation, however from time to time, based on accommodation and service delivery demands, this situation may change and staff may be required to co-share a NPYWC leased or owned property.
- Every employee is required to have (or willing to obtain) a current and valid criminal history check, and if applicable, a Working with Children Check.
- Every employee is required to meet the relevant state and territory mandatory vaccination requirements.
- We require most remote based and travelling staff to have a current Australian driver's licence.
- A current First Aid certificate or a willingness to undertake training.
- Experience in operating a manual 4WD vehicle or a willingness to undertake training.
- A good level of health and fitness that matches the requirements of the role. If so required by NPYWC you may be required to undergo a pre-employment medical assessment.

We are committed to building a respectful and inclusive workplace, appointing the best person for the role and supporting diversity.
