"We want to go forward together, work together. Stand together, hold hands and move forward together"
Rene Kulitja NPYWC Director, April 2021

"NPYWC have been trying to make these laws easier. They should be just one law. These borders are a big boundary for us - Anangu we dont worry about the border"
Margaret Smith, NPYWC Director. April 2021

"We have been talking about three states, three governments, three funding's and three rules. These are all tough laws for us to follow. NPYWC have been trying to make these laws easier, they should just be dealing with one law." NPYWC Director, Margaret Smith

"From these three states, our Tjukurpa is as one (story, vision, culture)."
Rene Kulitja, NPYWC Director

WHAT WE HAVE LEARNT

Government of South Australia
Department for Child Protection

Department of
TERRITORY FAMILIES,
HOUSING AND COMMUNITIES

Government of Western Australia
Department of Communities
Child Protection and Family Support

"I could pick up a phone and know exactly who I am talking to instead of everyone looking for a case worker. It would make things easier for health departments. At the moment NPYWC is acting like the tri-state officer. Tanya Luckey, Kinship Carer, August 2021

"Evidence has repeatedly shown that ACCO's are best placed to respond to the needs of their communities, with this policy approach repeatedly producing "effective and sustainable" outcomes for Aboriginal people" State Government of Victoria, 2018
